Re: PG&E's objection to my $100 claim for lost work
Claim 1070
In re: PG&E Corporation
Case #19-30088 (DM)

Dear Judge Montali:

On or about November 5, 2016 I was working in my office when my power went out. I found a PG&E crew about a block away. I received no notice. I bill by the hour at $365 and lost about 20 minutes of work. I wrote PG&E about my claim and they ignored me. Ever since then, every time I have paid a PG&E bill I've included my $100 claim on the memo line of my check (on probably close to 46 checks to date). No one from PG&E has ever inquired about that while cashing my checks (totaling approximately $18,400). Since there is no competition to PG&E I have no choice but to use their service or go without electricity. I can't choose a better provider, cheaper rates, more responsive management, etc. Now, PG&E is apparently wasting thousands of dollars opposing my $100 claim. What is wrong with these vultures? They shouldn't be reorganized; they should be broken up. And, they can't even be bothered to actually mail me a copy of their objection to my claim. I have to send away for it, like a decoder ring. If you are a court of equity, please reject their opposition and allow my claim. PG&E caused my loss, ignored my letters, and doesn't care at all about me. There is nothing I can do about that except go without power. I submit to your judgement on this letter. Thank you very much. Sorry PG&E is wasting your time with this.

Best Regards,

Paul Marotta
